Chanukah Insight

Should You Change Your Wicks Each Night?

The Shulchan Aruch says (OC 673:4) that we keep the old wicks in the Menorah until they are no longer usable and do not change them for new ones each night. The Levush says that you should not change them because older ones light better. The Likutei Chaver Ben Chaim also says that you should use the old ones, even though they changed it daily in the Beis HaMikdosh. The reason is because in the Beis HaMikdosh they purposely wanted to show that the Menorah was not meant to give off light so they didn't want the older more effective wicks. However, for our Menorah we want more light for Pirsumei Nisa so the older ones are more desirable.

The Minhag Yisroel Torah brings that we have a Minhag to change the wicks each night because each night was a new Nes. Also, we change wicks because it is a Zecher for the Menorah in the Beis HaMikdosh, where they changed wicks each night. He brings a third reason from Mishmeres Shalom. He says we should change the wicks because the Rema says that the newest Ner that you light each night is more Chashuv than the others, because the first Ner is all you really need for the mitzva. If so, then by leaving the wick in its place, the next night you would light it as the second Ner and lower its Kedusha, which we never do. Therefore, rather than keep moving the wick around from night to night in order to keep the latest one in the first position, we just replace them every night.

Something for the Shabbos table

Yaakov sent Yosef to inquire after the welfare of his brothers. The Torah notes that his quest for his brothers brought him to the city of Shechem. Rashi comments that the Torah emphasizes that the sale of Yosef began in Shechem, as it is "a place prone to disaster."

Rav Wolbe explains that just as we find that there are auspicious and inauspicious times of the year such as the month of Adar and the month of Av respectively, so too, there are auspicious and inauspicious places. Shechem was one such inauspicious place.

As Chanukah approaches, we should bear in mind that like all of the Yomim Tovim, the days of Chanukah are an auspicious time for growing in our connection to Hashem. These days are designated l'hodos u'l'halel - as a time to thank Hashem and praise Him for all that He has done for us. Seize the opportunity; fill the days with thanks and praise, and you will leave Chanukah a different person than you went in!
