Something for the Shabbos table

In this week's Parsha we are told of the episode where Hashem reveals Himself to Moshe at the burning bush. Hashem tells Moshe; 'The place upon which you are standing is sacred land' (Shemos 3:5) The Chofetz Chaim taught a very important message on this possuk. When a person finds himself in a situation with many distractions and difficulties, he is likely to say; 'When Hashem improves my situation, then I will be able to study Torah and fulfil more Mitzvos. But not right now. Now all I can do is think about my problems.' Said the Chofetz Chaim, this possuk implies 'The place upon which you are standing,' that is, the exact situation in which you find yourself is sacred. If your life situation is difficult, it is exactly in that difficult situation that Hashem wants you to serve Him.

Daf HaYomi - We will be starting Berachos 19a on Sunday
